Featured

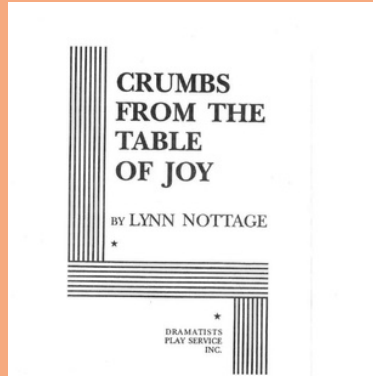

This month, we are featuring Celebration Arts' production of TOPDOG/UNDERDOG! This is one of the best shows in the Sacramento region starring some beloved actors. who delivers a powerful and moving story. Their performances are so well-acted and lived-in that you become fully immersed in their world. The set dressing is beautiful which only helps to draw audiences into the narrative further. There's never a dull moment in the show as both actors excel at captivating the audience. With powerful moments, lighthearted ones, and excellent comedic timing, this piece left audience members breathless.

MDL Voice and Acting Studio welcomes...

William Schmidt

We are expanding! William Schmidt is a local teacher and performer with a degree in Theatre from Sacramento State. William brings a wealth of knowledge and passion to MDL Voice and Acting Studios as our newest mentor, with a focus in acting. With a robust background in the performing arts, William is set to feature in two upcoming San Francisco productions: Peter Pan the Panto at the Presidio Theatre and Choir Boy with Shotgun Players.

William is renowned for his empathetic approach to teaching, adept at understanding and addressing the unique needs of each student. His ability to connect with a wide variety of ages ensures that all students receive personalized and effective instruction. William's focus is on creating a supportive and nurturing environment tailored to each student's individual growth and success in the performing arts.

MDL Studio Commitment Statement

At MDL Voice and Acting Studio, we believe in the power of diverse voices and stories. We are committed to fostering an inclusive environment where every student feels valued and respected, regardless of their race, ethnicity, gender identity, sexual orientation, socioeconomic background, or ability. Our studio thrives on the richness that diversity brings to the arts, and we are dedicated to creating a safe space where everyone can express themselves freely and authentically. With experience in theatre intimacy coordination, we are also deeply committed to promoting consent, safety, and boundaries in and out theatre. Our training includes comprehensive education on these principles, empowering our students to advocate for themselves and others. We teach the importance of respectful communication and personal autonomy, providing the tools to navigate both personal and professional relationships with integrity and confidence. We strive to ensure that all our programs and practices are equitable, providing opportunities for growth and success to all members of our community. At MDL Voice and Acting Studio, we celebrate our differences and stand united in our commitment to inclusion, equity, and the transformative power of the arts.
